ELEARNINGNEWS ARTICLE

Year 2 - number 15 Wednesday 7 march 2018

5 common mistakes in the production of reports from your LMS platform

Do not waste time and effort creating relationships that are of no use to anyone! Read which are the 5 most common mistakes in the reporting activity from the platform and, above all, how to avoid them.

Incorrect reports produced by your e-learning platform are not only a huge waste of time, but they can also provide you and other people in your company with inaccurate data, and therefore bring you to take wrong or even harmful business decisions.

To be sure that the reports produced by the LMS platform are clear and easy to understand for everyone, we recommend reading this interesting article published by eLearning industry where you can find the 5 most common mistakes in the production of reports, but above all you can identify ways and strategies to always produce reports that correspond to reality.

Read the complete article...